MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Retirement - Daniels Bill

1. It would appear that, if the Daniels bill becomes law, it will not do so until mid- or even late October. In its present form certain provisions will be an incentive to some employees now planning to retire during the next several months to accelerate their schedules so as to retire not later than 31 October 1969. The short span of time between the date the bill becomes law, if it does, and 31 October could make it extremely difficult for us to process all the retirement papers, make terminal payments, etc., in the normal time frame.

2. I understand that most of the employees who would be affected now plan to retire as of 31 December 1969. It occurs to me that we should ascertain from those employees who plan to retire by 31 December 1969 whether, if the Daniels bill becomes law, they will in fact wish to retire not later than 31 October 1969. If the answer is affirmative, it should be pointed out to each that, with the large number of probable retirements at that time, processing will be slow and that under normal circumstances their lump sum leave payments may not be made until after 1 January 1970. If this is not agreeable in any case, the individual should make a request to expedite the payment to him. Assuming that payment after 1 January 1970 would be agreeable to most, we could then make special arrangements for the remainder.
